NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

A. W. Hurt, of Conway, died last week.

A. L. Acree has been appointed postmaster at Lulu in Russell county.

Gav. Bradley pardoned J. W. alias Newton Cloyd, of Madison, convicted of forgery.

Vanderbilt University defeated the Central University eleven 21 to 16 at Nashville Saturday.

Sam Moore had John Hurst arrested at Harrodsburg because the latter told him he would kill and eat him for breakfast.

The jury in the case of John Colyer for killing Jailer Jack Catron at Somerset stood nine for conviction and three for acquittal and were discharged.

Granville Nell and John Sprunk, who were arrested and placed in jail at Jefferson for drunkenness, were released in a fire which destroyed the jail and several buildings near it.

On Middlefork creek, in Bell county, Christopher Helton shot and killed Matt Baker in a duel, which was the result of a quarrel a few days previous. Helton gave himself up.

The London company of State guards was mustered in with Ed Parker, captain; James H. Sparks, 1st lieutenant; and S. N. Scoville, 2d lieutenant. A. A. Settles was appointed 1st sergeant.

A dispatch from Harborsville says republicans of that place are forming a new company of State guards to succeed the old one, which, it is said, will be mustered out in a few days. This company expects to be taken to Frankfort to assist in seeing Taylor, whether he is declared elected or not.

An interesting State meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy was held at Richmond. Mrs. Sophia Fox Sea, of Louisville, read an able paper and the splendid address of Mrs. A. M. Harrison, of Lexington, was also enthusiastically received. Mrs. Eugenia Dunlap Potts, of Lexington, read an interesting report in which she urged the necessity of a museum in Kentucky for the preservation of Confederate relics. A motion was also carried to organize chapters all over the State of the children of Confederate soldiers. It was also decided to raise a Kentucky fund to assist in the erection of a monument to Jefferson Davis. Winchester was selected as the next place of meeting. The following officers composing the old board, were re-elected: president, Mrs. Hall W. Duke; vice president, Mrs. A. M. Harrison, Lexington; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. E. Grant, Louisville; treasurer, Mrs. Mitchell, Bowling Green; recording secretary, Mrs. Mabel C. Jones, Franklin.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Mrs. J. R. Pence, a bride of two months, died in Pulaski last week.

John Baker and Miss Ida Stephens, both of the East End, were married at James Chenoweth's Saturday.

Miss Alma, daughter of Rev. J. W. Campbell, of the Baptist church, was married at Perryville to Minor Ransdall, of Harrodsburg.

J. H. Walls, aged 11, and twelve widower, was married Saturday to Miss Willie Belle Francis, just 16. Both live in the Highland section.

The engagement of Miss Elizabeth Barrett, of Richmond, to Prof. Fred S. Miller, of Highland, Kansas, former musical director of the Richmond Military band, is announced.

The North Dakota supreme court has hit the divorce business a body blow. It holds that residence in the State must be bona fide and characterized by the intention to stay, to give the benefit of the State law. Those who come to the State for the express purpose of securing divorce do not acquire residence.

THE WOMAN YOU LOVE.—Do you know it is a splendid thing to think that the woman you really love will never grow old to you? Through the wrinkles of time, through the mask of years, if you really love her, you will always see the face you want. And a woman who really loves a man does not see that he grows old; he is not decrepit to her; he does not trouble; he is not old; he sees the same gallant gentleman who won her heart and hand. I like to think of it that way. I like to think love is eternal. And to love that way and then go down the hill together, and as you go down, hear perhaps the laughter of grandchildren, while the birds of joy and love sing once more in the leafless branches of the tree of age. —Robert G. Ingersoll.

BRAVE MEN TALK.—Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. If there's a cure to feel like that, listen to J. W. Gardner, Nashville, Tenn. He says, "I believe there are just the things for a man when he feels run down, and don't know whether he lives or dies, better than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only at Leaky's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Col. G. R. Davis, director general of the World's Fair, died at Chicago.

LANCASTER.

J. Flores Robinson, Jr., has moved on Lexington Avenue, near the college.

Thomas Stines brought me a turnip 22 inches in circumference, which grew after his onions were pulled.

Capt. Wm. Herndon entered the dog, Clint, that won the prize at the Fox Hunter's Association at Estill Springs.

J. D. Kinnard, of Columbus, O., is visiting his brother, Squire W. H. Kinnard. Miss Lena Brown, of Stanford, is the guest of Mrs. R. E. McRoberts.

Miss Hesse Barnside will entertain at her beautiful country home on the evening of Nov. 30, Thanksgiving, in honor of Miss Little Brown, of Jessamine county.

J. A. Hensley desires to purchase a large dapple gray horse to take the place of one of his pair, which died lately, and which was one of his splendid horse team.

The two handsome phase marriages, ordered by Judge I. C. Humphill and J. A. Hensley, have arrived. They will be used by Mr. Hensley on funeral occasions and burial for other purposes, such as weddings or social parties.

The protracted meeting at the Baptist church has resulted so far in 13 additions. Rev. How left Saturday, and Rev. J. C. Massey will continue the meeting through this week, as a deep interest is manifested and much good is being done.

Jack Sterns, of Cincinnati, bought of H. P. and C. A. Robinson 110 cattle to go on ship at Millersburg. He will be in to see the cattle. The delivery premises presented the appearance of a village. The first wash will be made Dec. 17, with increased capacity.

On Dec. 1 J. L. Hamilton will start daily transfer between this city and Camp Nelson, by means of a thorough engine drawing a number of wagons. One movement is proposed to ship our goods by the river from Cincinnati and Louisville to Camp Nelson, thence to this place by the means mentioned.

Over 400 attended the exhibit on at the opera house Friday night given by The Nashville Students, one of the best musical troupes on the road. Everybody was delighted and it was truly a great show. It was excellent in music, song, dance and special features. Manager Fessinger has engaged an excellent troupe for Dec. 11.

The funding contest in the legislative race will reveal the fact that both judges at West Bryansville precinct retired from the booth in the afternoon about 2 o'clock, and were absent just six minutes. This information is given by J. W. Flowers, who held his watch on them. That poll gave the republican candidate a majority of 21.

Elder C. E. Powell delivered his farewell sermon at the Christian church on Sunday. It was an able discourse, full of expressions of appreciation of the kindness extended to him by our people, and of hope that the church will grow in grace and remain steadfast in the faith. He will be kindly remembered by our people, who bid him God-speed in the noblest of all causes.

A large crowd convened at the court-house Sunday afternoon in answer to the call made by the W. C. T. U., to request Congress not to permit the polygamist, Brigham H. Roberts, to serve as a member of that body. Rev. J. C. Massey presided over the meeting, and with Mrs. G. M. Patterson at the organ and a splendid choir, sweet music was dispensed. Able addresses were delivered by Rev. Lapsley McKee and City Attorney W. L. Williams. In reference to the powers of Congress as to the matter under consideration, the course pursued by Roberts was justly condemned as a violation of the laws of God and man and destructive of the best interests of society. A resolution was unanimously passed, favoring his expulsion, if Congress has the power to do so.

Many bold assertions are being made about who is elected governor, when it all depends on the evidence in the contests, with which the public is not familiar. One thing is certain—the man who is legally elected should be seated. Any other course will result in the disintegration and the total annihilation of the democratic party. It is no excuse to say that the republican party has done wrong. Two wrongs do not make anything right. Modern times demand more purity in politics. Some men, who are honest in ordinary business transactions, think that it is no harm to beat a tollgate, a railroad, or to take unfair advantage in an election; but the people now frown on such conduct. Even if moral rectitude cuts no figure in settling this question, policy and political sagacity suggest a fair settlement, for the good of the party and the State of Kentucky. I believe that the matter will be fairly settled, notwithstanding the hue and cry raised by many, who know no more of the facts in the case than the country squire knows of the polished courts of Europe.

THE DEVIL.

REV. GEORGE O. HARNES TELLS HOW SATAN GOT AFTER HIM.

HARRODSBURG, Nov. 27.—With the exception of a glorious sunburst, yesterday morning, which was soon eclipsed by gathering clouds, the weather for a week has been dismal to a degree. The attendance at the meetings has not, however, been affected, as we have had a crowded house every night, and the deepest interest for which I praise the Lord. Yesterday we had two rather remarkable services. In the morning I preached on the Lord's supper, as pertinent to the weekly observance of that ordinance. The church was filled with the regular congregation, and volunteers from other denominations, so that I had just the audience I wanted. The good Lord gave liberty of utterance and fervor of spirit and the impressions were evidently deep. At night there was rather an unusual episode, which is the Devil may try to use it in his usual slanders, lying way. I will get the start of him by writing the straight of it. I will premise the little incident by saying that for two years I have been troubled with attacks of vertigo, accompanied by distressing nausea, which do not seem to yield to the faith I have, though doubtless held largely in check by the imperfect trust in the Lord, that I have exercised. Of late I have noticed that Satan, the unbeloved author of these assaults, has so timed them as to bring them just before I want to preach on particular subjects, that I have much at heart in presenting to the people. This, therefore, being a direct challenge, it becomes a good soldier of Jesus Christ to answer it and "conquer the Devil, that he may flee from us."

Last night the combat assumed a new and unusual phase. Ordinarily, after kneeling and prayer, and steadily ignoring symptoms, the attack has passed away in the act of preaching, leaving me quite relieved. Last night it was different. With great difficulty I got in the church by the aid of my good host, Bro. Anderson, and hoped to go right on, after once facing my audience. But it didn't turn out as I expected. I got out a few words of the opening prayer, but was so overcome by deadly nausea, that I was obliged to sit down and ask one of the brethren to pray. Recovering slightly during his fervent petition, I sat down on a chair beside the pulpit and began to preach. My mind was perfectly clear; my subject "Immortality," but twice during the discourse I was overcome that I had spells of dry retching, nearer akin to "Mat de mer" on the second day out at sea, than anything I ever felt in the way of nausea. The coal bucket was the only utensil handy, and the singular spectacle was presented of one good Christian elder holding it; another my head; and the preacher in the undignified role of a very sick man. The moment relief came I resumed the thread of discourse and held on for over an hour, presenting the truth as I wished to speak it, without the least abridgment whatever. I had to keep my eyes closed, for when I opened them the road and floor kept coming together, and the lamps performed a witch's waltz, that made matters much worse. I suppose the jocular portion of my audience were struck with the ludicrous side of the incident, but the others looked on the pathetic side, and were as "still as death" during the whole performance. I explained it to the people as the "toll gate fee" the Devil charged for invading his domain to preach the dear gospel. I pay it in various forms; the loss of old friends; heartless slanders; persecutions of all sorts; all of which I am glad to pay, and count it joy that I am counted worthy to suffer shame for His dear name, whose servant I am. These particulars, of course, are usually confined to one's bed room, but as this was a "public performance," I think it best to tell it just as it happened. The Devil would never do that.

I go (D. V.) to Richmond Tuesday, to spend Thanksgiving with my old friend and entertainer, Thos. J. Smith, Sr., who always welcomes me to his home and treats me most kindly. I go for a little rest, not to preach, though that will follow, of course, is the door is opened. Ever in Jesus.

"THU HARNES."

A friend in need is a friend. That is exactly what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is. It is the mother's help when she is suddenly awakened in the night by the ominous husky cough, and labored breathing, of her babe. It is the safe resort of the youth or adult when he has "caught cold" and there is coughing and irritation of the mucous membrane of the throat. It allays the irritation and cures the cold. Congressman Bailey, of Texas, says he will support Hankford for the democratic leadership, but he is inclined to look for a deadlock, and in that event will propose the name of his colleague, S. W. T. Lanham.

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.

Rev. R. L. Bowman has been installed as pastor of the Baptist church at Pineville.

Elders J. L. Allen and J. G. Livingston closed a meeting of a week at Broadhead Sunday with 11 additions.

Rev. J. R. Savage, of Danville, held a meeting at the Flemingsburg Methodist church that resulted in 23 additions.

Elders A. J. Daugherty and J. G. Livingston will conduct Thanksgiving services at Pine Grove, Thursday, at 11 A. M.

About $40,000 was subscribed Sunday at the morning service of the Fourth-Avenue Methodist church, Louisville, for the erection of a new church building.

Dr. Robert Lowery, a prominent Baptist divine of New York, who composed among other well known hymns, "Shall We Meet Beyond the River," is dead, aged 73.

Rev. I. M. Yonan, who went from Louisville with his family to do mission work in his native land, Persia, left his little boy in New York with his grandparents. The son died just after the father sailed.

The seceders from the Christian church, who worship in the court-house here, now number 20-odd and Elder E. D. Hubbard preaches for them. The mother church is too worldly for them, one of the brothers tells us.

The protracted meeting at the First Christian church is still in progress and many are attending every meeting to hear Rev. I. J. Spencer. Much good is being accomplished. The meetings are now being held afternoon and night. Up to yesterday there had been 24 additions. —Winchester Sun.

The meeting conducted by Rev. H. H. Hibbs, of Williamsburg, at the Baptist church, did not close till Sunday night. It lasted two weeks and proved to be one of great blessing. Mr. Hibbs is a fine preacher and his earnest appeals for his Master brought, Rev. J. B. Crouch tells us, 18 into the fold, while there was a further increase of four by letter. The new converts were baptized yesterday at 3:30 by the pastor.

The action of the circuit judges in compelling the election officers to certify to returns that the officers swear have been cooked up and are absolute frauds, is creating a bitter prejudice in the minds of the people, and leads a well-known politician to say: "If the circuit judges have this power then there is no use in going to the expense of holding an election. The judges can call for troops and have the certificates made out at the point of the bayonet to whomsoever the judges decide they wish to elect. If some one election clerk or judge should fail to be bluffed by the bayonets he will be arrested a week later, if need be, and placed in jail if he refuses to obey the court and sign what he knows to be a fraudulent certificate. Does it not seem monstrous that you can be compelled to certify as true a statement that you have sworn to be untrue and fraudulent? If this is permitted to go unrebuked all that a candidate will need in the future is to have a circuit judge on his side and he can override any majority."

Republicanism, so called, is a power built on fraud and force. The railway in politics knows no other weapons than those of brutality and money. The combie possesses the one virtue of homogeneity; for there seems a certain fitness in liason between the corporation that has no soul and the party that has no conscience. The famous old pact between the Puritan and the Black-leg was nothing to this, either in its pretentious morality, or in the covert use of bargain, intrigue and corruption, wherewith it stood accused, though, as the world now believes, falsely. —Conrlier Journal.

USEFUL DOG.—Mr. L. B. Giveus, the liveryman, probably has the most useful dog in town. He is full of bull stock and his name is Pat. His greatest delight is in leading the horses to water, though he renders valuable service in many ways. A frightened horse ran off with him one day last week, but he held to the reins until the animal stopped. —Harrodsburg Democrat.

We are glad to observe that Editor Adams, of the Richmond Pantagraph, has found moments. In one of them he says: Now, the fool people who gave Admiral Dewey that $50,000 home are kicking themselves because the admiral has donated it to his new wife. I serve the silly hero worshippers right.

WORKING NIGHT AND DAY.—The latest and lightest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar coated globe of health, that changes weakness into strength. Hollows into energy; brain-ache into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25 cents per box. Sold by Penny, Druggist.

Wouldn't it be jolly when they quit holding indignation meetings; and we can all settle down to our winter reading with nothing more sensational to disturb us than the click of the mouse trap? —Cynthiana Democrat.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - Nov. 28, 1899

W. P. WALTON.

THE court of appeals divided on the question of whether the decision compelling the election officers of Nelson to certify the votes cast for W. P. Taylor for W. S. Taylor should be set aside and the motion to do so was overruled, three republican and two democratic judges voting for it and the other two democratic judges going on record against the running of elections by injunction. The vote was very jubilant at first, but they came down a bit when it was learned that the democrats who are opposed to government by injunction, will likely play at the same game, now that the appellate court has recognized this method of having the circuit judges force the county election boards to count as the judge sees fit. Instead of allowing them to exercise their own judgment in the matter. If county election officers can be mandamus and enjoined good lawyers say the State board can also be. The democrats charge the republicans with military intimidation, and Federal interference in Louisville and with frauds in Knox, Johnson, Lewis, Greenup and other mountain counties, and the legality of the election and count in those counties may, by this republican method, be taken from the hands of the commission and thrown into the courts. At any rate Mr. Taylor hasn't got the certificate of election yet and we hope and believe he never will. Mr. Goebel is the honest elected governor and if we were the State board of election commissioners we would declare him so after satisfying ourselves that the things charged are true. The board meets next Saturday.

THE Lexington Herald is saving the wind because the democratic committee in the 7th district decided that only those who voted for the regular democratic nominees and who will promise to support the democratic nominee for Congress, shall participate in the primaries. The action is perfectly right and proper. Democrats do not wish to let those who betrayed the party say who shall be its nominees, and they propose to run their matters to suit themselves and not Billy Breckinridge and his bolting crew. It is too soon to extend the olive branch to these erring fellows, who must do penance, before they can be received into full fellowship again.

THE Richmond, Va., Times proposes Senator John W. Daniel for the democratic nomination for president, but however worthy and capable the gentleman may be, the suggestion will not meet with a hearty response. The Hon. William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska, is as certain to receive the nomination as the convention meets. He is the one democrat, whom the party could have any hopes of electing, and the leaders will see to it that he is pitted against McKinley again.

EFFORTS are being made by the friends of Editor B. J. Newton, of the Owensboro Herald, to have him announce for Congress. He would do the State honor in the National Legislature, if his people were to send him there and they would do so if they were all as well aware of his ability and uprightness as are his brothers of the quill.

WONDER if the Louisville Post and Dispatch will continue, now that the election is over, to send us all those several copies of each paper every day?—Todd County Times. Lord bless your innocent soul, no. They have already stopped coming here and the number of the two sheets sent here now is too small to count.

THE Brownies and the republicans threaten to unite on a candidate for Congress in the 7th district. Let them do it. Didn't they unite against Goebel in the district and didn't he carry it by 2,000, or 4,000? To ladies with them and a curse upon both of their houses. They are impotent and harmless.

THE republicans have a majority of 13 in the House of Representatives, but as that is an unlucky number, they will proceed at once to change it by giving seats to republicans audacious enough to claim them from honestly elected democrats.

THE Georgetown Times of Nov. 28th got in Sunday, looking a little worse for wear, but still in the ring. It is could unfold the story of its journeyings to those who think the mad men make no mistakes.

THE initial number of the Vindictor, published at Owensboro by W. M. and C. T. Atkins, is out. It will advocate prohibition pure and simple, and as it says "it has come to stay," it will doubtless make it prevail.

THERE were only four murders in Kentucky Saturday, as it wasn't a good day for manslaughter.

THE railroads are preparing to raise freight rates all along the line.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Gov. Bradley has named Dec. 12 as a day of special registration in the 7th congressional district.

According to the republican tables, Pratt only beat Judge Breckinridge for attorney general 911.

Cuba is to be divided into two provinces, Gen. Ludlow to govern the western, and Gen. Wood the eastern. Gen. Brooke is to be recalled.

Company F, of Winchester, the crack company of the 24 Kentucky regiment, State Guard, has been mustered out of service. Nearly all its members are democrats.

Hickman county democrats held a mass meeting at Clinton, and adopted resolutions denouncing Gov. Bradley and favoring the impeachment of Judge Toney.

Henry H. Hall, who as assistant treasurer of the United States during Lincoln's administration, signed the first greenbacks issued by the government, is dead.

Secretary Root will recommend the immediate appointment of civil governors for Cuba and Porto Rico, and the immediate construction of a cable between the United States and the Philippines.

Claims of American citizens for damages in the late war with Spain, aggregating $25,000,000 have been filed. Congress is to be asked to create a commission to adjudicate these claims.

A Frankfort dispatch says that the Goebel managers are preparing a mandatory injunction suit to prevent the State board from counting the votes of Jefferson, Knox and Johnson counties.

Clark Howell, of the Atlanta Constitution, telegraphs Urey Woodson that his paper has made no such comments on the Kentucky election or on Mr. Woodson as the lying Louisville Dispatch prints.

A letter addressed to "Wm. Bradley, City," was delivered to the governor. It read: "Your resignation is requested immediately. If not we will murder you. Foes." Below this was drawn a rude representation of a skull and crossbones.

Col. Roger D. Williams and Milton Young, of Lexington, for representative and State Senator, respectively, will contest the election of the democratic candidates. Hon. W. W. Combs, of Madison, will also contest the election of W. T. Harrel.

Mass meetings in Carlisle, Graves, McCracken and Lawrence counties Saturday denounced Gov. Bradley's misuse of the military on election day and advocated Judge Toney's impeachment. Hart county republicans endorsed the action of both.

Deboe tells Washington that the Legislature recently elected in this State is surely an anti-Blackburn body and will not return Blackburn to the Senate. At the county fairs next year Deboe will be entered in the jackass races and will be a sure winner of every blue ribbon.—Owensboro Messenger.

Senator Blackburn said in New York that he has no doubt that Goebel is elected governor and that he will be given the certificate. He denied the story emphatically that Mr. Goebel had designs on the Senate in case he was not declared elected and said he never had a more loyal friend than Mr. Goebel.

Notices of contest have been filed by David R. Allen and Fred H. Hoffman, republican legislative candidates, in Kenton county, against W. H. Collopy and M. Abele, democratic representatives-elect. Mr. Abele spoke at Otterhelm several times during the campaign. Notice of contest was also filed by W. Gill, democrat, against H. Bristor, republican, in Logan county.

Bradley can't make a show of enough bayonets at Frankfort to keep Chief Justice Hazelrigg from swearing in Goebel as governor, as the law prescribes. If it be finally legally determined that Goebel is entitled to the office, nor to keep the Legislature, democratic in both branches, from recognizing Gov. Goebel as the only real governor, and sending to him its laws for signature, and ignoring the official existence of one Taylor.—Owensboro Messenger.

In certifying the results in Louisville, the commissioners sent the record to the State commissioners containing the affidavits of the mayor, sheriff, chief of police and jailer, showing that military interference was unnecessary; of election officers, showing that they were intimidated at the polls by the militia and made to sign returns they knew to be false under Judge Toney's instruction, and of candidates and citizens, showing the presence of United States marshals at the polls and the general conditions that prevailed.

Arnold, Smith & Co., bought of Howard Bros. 50 feeding cattle, 49 of Phil Crouse, 25 of Wm. Nicholls, and 75 from other parties in the county at about 4 cents. They are the finest herd of cattle ever seen in Nelson county, all dehorned and weigh from 900 to 1,200 pounds and will be fed on slop.—Record.

D. N. Prewitt bought of John Blee 109 shoats at $2.50, a bunch from Sam Spoonamore and a bunch from Mrs. Robt. Harris at $1. Mr. Curry, of Eaton, O., bought at Fox's stable two cars of horses and mule colts at $17.50 to $25. He also bought in this vicinity a car of extra good grade Short-horn heifers.—Advocate.

During the past season W. E. and J. O. McAllister, of Moreland, sent the bay gelding, Brook, by Dictionary, a mile in 2:24 and two miles in 4:50; a bay gelding by Naboth, dam by Young Wilkes, worked a mile in 2:14. Dr. Monical, by Gambetta Wilkes, out of a sister of Coleridge, 2:05.1, paced a mile in 2:16 and quarters in 3:11. All of the work was done over a slow track.

LANCASTER COURT. There were about 250 cattle on the market yesterday, but the buyers and sellers were far apart and not more than half of them sold. Some good yearling steers brought 4c, shoppers 3c to 3.5c, butcher stuff 2c to 3c, heifers 3c to 4c, cows and calves $25 to $45. A bunch of sheep brought $3.50, but the hogs on the market did not sell. Mules were in demand and B. G. Fox paid $150 for an extra good one. Cotton mules brought $90 to $80 and sugar mules $85 to $150.

Hereafter when any one wants to definitely locate the whorl in any quarter of the globe he should watch the direction in which the Missouri mole is headed. During the last month or more droves of these animals have been purchased by the representatives of the English government and shipped to Cape Town for military service in South Africa. As a war instrument and in a still greater degree as a negative factor in neutral hostilities the Missouri mole is all right.

At a Pittsburg fair to be held the first week in November will be an exhibit showing the evolution of transportation in this country. Among the models will be an American railway train of 1823. One of the original cars has been preserved after serving a farmer for 17 years as a chicken coop. A six horse Chomestoga wagon, as big as three modern vehicles, will also be reproduced.

It is intimated that the University of Chicago will confer the honorary degree of LL. D. upon Admiral George Dewey when he visits that city. As this institution has not been lavished with such honors, having conferred the degree upon but one person, President McKinley, it will be a marked and no doubt appreciated distinction.

WE heard a man who ought to know say that only one republican paper and that the Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune, is delivered to subscribers here. Not many of the rats can read and those who can do not peruse the papers of their own party.

SHORT-George Hahn, the clever senior member of the firm of Hahn & Cokey, of Moreland, accidentally shot himself in the foot while hunting in Washington county. Fortunately it is a flesh wound only and the probability is that it will not make him lame.

THE first female drummer to "make" Stanford was here last week. She represented the Kalamazoo Skirt Co. and sold a number of our merchants including Severance & Sons. Her name was Mrs. Adams and she was thoroughly conversant with her business. Will Severance tells us.

THE Northbound passenger, No. 21, was delayed a short while Friday by a plug blowing out of the flat sheet at Moreland. Fireman Harry Brown thought he was in a collision and jumped from the engine, badly spraining an ankle and scratching up his face considerably. A freight engine pulled the train to Louisville.

"Is the section along the Bradfordsville pike beyond Hustonville," said Rev. R. B. Noel to us. "I find that only the Bible and the INDIAN JOURNAL goes and it's no use to try to talk anything else to those people. I told them that the book and the paper were the two extremes, but they seemed to be satisfied and left them with their heads."

J. H. PAXTON, his attorney, has gotten Gov. Bradley to take off five years of Hick Evans' sentence of 15 years. He was given five years for breaking into C. E. Tate's store and then at the same court had the penalty doubled when he was convicted of breaking into M. S. Baughman's tool house. The court of appeals has since decided that the penalty could not be doubled till after a convict has had a chance to reform.

INTIMIDATORS.—As Sam Embury, Jr., and Jesse Myerson were going to the depot together to take the train for Mt. Vernon to give bond to appear before the U. S. court at Louisville to answer an indictment for election intimidation, he remarked "Here go the intimidators." Those who do not know the two can appreciate the remark when they are told that both together are not as big as a three cent loaf of bread after a heavy meal has been taken from it.

GREAT GAME THURSDAY.—The old rivals, Centre College and Central University, will have a Thanksgiving game of foot ball at Danville, Thursday, Nov. 30th. The game will be called at 2:30 sharp. It will be a hot contest from start to finish and many old students are expected to grand see the battle. Central University will send a big delegation to Danville by special train. All of the preliminaries, players, etc., have been agreed to. Additional interest is lent to the occasion because C. U. last week beat Washington & Lee by a decisive score.

SHAWBRANCE & SONS have athletic window dressers in Messrs. J. P. Connolly and Forrest McElroy. Their donkey, made of felt boots, etc., is a daisy.

LIBERTY The INTERIOR JOURNAL's business manager hopes to be at Liberty next Monday, Dec. 11th, first day of circuit court. If you want "the cheapest and best" printing of any kind or have any business with this paper, hunt him up.

"I HAVE gained 10 pounds since the election," said our clever and corpulent friend, B. F. Slavin, of Danville, at Lancaster yesterday, "and I attribute it to the fact that Hoyle and Garrard elected democratic representatives and that Senator Goebel will be our next governor."

MEAT SPOILED.—Mr. B. S. Johnston, of the McKinney section, killed five or six chickens during the cool spell of two weeks ago, and has lost the meat for all purposes except soap grease. Our people should remember that one or two cold blasts of wind do not make winter and that cold weather is essential to the curing of meat.

DISSENT.—Mr. S. H. Shank, president of the Lincoln County National Bank, who spoiled a good democratic record by voting for McKinley in 1896, under the belief that thereby he would save the country, is so disgusted with republicanism and republicans, that he says, "I'll vote for the democratic nominees hereafter, even if they run on a platform advertising counterfeit money." The indictment by the U. S. court and arrest of the young men here for intimidating Negroes in the election, have brought a number of democrats back into the fold, who will hereafter and always fight anything that Davidson, who seems to have been the instigator of the prosecutions, advocates. It was the worse day's work he ever did for himself when he rushed to Louisville to tell District Attorney Hill the cock and bull story that led to the indictments.

COOK.—The sad news of the death of the J. L. Cook at Monticello was received Friday night. He had been a sufferer from heart disease for some time and that made him an easy prey when typhoid fever settled its fangs on him. Mr. Cook was a peculiarly modest and excellent young man, and those who know say he was a most promising physician for his age. He was a nephew of Dr. L. B. Cook and during his stay with him here made many warm friends, who grieve to know that he was cut down when apparently entering on a useful life. His father, Dr. A. S. Cook, is living, but his mother died several years ago and his remains were laid beside hers at Jamestown. Dr. Cook had recently joined the Christian church and consecrated himself to his Maker. When he left here a month ago it was with the intention of going to a Polytechnic at Chicago, after visiting his father and friends at Monticello. But man proposes and God disposes and he is only safe whom death shall find also ready.

THE circuit court closed Saturday. The case of Ed Lee, now Jones, as we gave his name last issue, who was on trial then, was given 30 days in jail for receiving a stolen buggy knowing it to be stolen. Hon. F. E. Habbitt presided and J. Mort Rothwell defended. Four men, one white and three Negroes, and one Negro woman, were sent to the penitentiary during the term.

JAMES HACKER was given a verdict for $200 against the L. & N. for alleged injuries received in a wreck at Rowland, but the company's attorney was given till the 10th day of the next term to file a bill of exceptions. HACKER is serving a life term for murder committed in Harlan. The first grand jury having failed to produce in court some indictments found, a special grand jury was impaneled with G. H. Engleman foreman and it returned indictments against Ben Lewis and Ed Simpson, each for breach of the peace, and two against Ed Simpson for carrying concealed weapons. Ashby McKee Warren was appointed an examiner. The grand jury reported both clerks' offices in good condition and suggested some repairs on the jail. The trustees of the jury fund not having a sufficient amount on hand to pay claims, a resolution was made on the auditor for $817. Sheriff S. M. Owens was allowed $31 and Jailer G. W. Deibel $68 for waiting on the court, and other claims to the amount of several hundred dollars were ordered paid.

The trustee of the jury fund, Mr. Geo. L. Penny, tells us that he paid the jurors for the term $900.

LEAVE your orders with us to-day and tomorrow. Our house will be closed Thursday. Higgins & McKinney.

MINCE Meat, Cranberries, Cream Cheese, Cakes, Crackers and all sorts of good things for Thanksgiving at Warren & Shanks.

HER many friends here will be pained to learn of the death of Miss Mamie Moore, which occurred in Louisville yesterday afternoon of consumption. She, it will be remembered, assisted Mrs. Kate Haddock here and was a very handsome young lady.

THE J. B. LINSLEY received from his son, Cashier E. P. Wesley, of the 1th National Bank of Columbus, Ga., yesterday, some remarkable promises of the cotton mills there. They are two specimens of baggy rags, crash towels and a counterpane, made at the Muscogee and the Homberg Mills and are both beautiful and serviceable. The cotton mills of the South have raised the price of cotton 3 or 4 cents a pound and have been of incalculable benefit to the planter.

A GOOD audience greeted the Centre College Glee Club at the Presbyterian church, Hustonville, Friday evening and enjoyed for two hours music both vocal and instrumental. The numbers rendered by the mandolin club were especially good, while the violin, guitar and banjo solos and duets were most creditable. The quartette singing was an enjoyable feature of the entertainment and it was loudly applauded, the basso being particularly fine. After the program was completed the greater portion of the crowd partook of a splendid supper served by the Presbyterian ladies in the beautiful parlors of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler. Hustonville's prettiest girls acted as waiters and Misses M. S. Logan, Kate Bain, Mrs. Wheeler and the Misses Wheeler and Worthington saw that everybody got an abundance of the good things as well as made them have a most delightful time socially. A good sum was realized, which will go to the church.

A CHAPTER of the United Daughters of the Confederacy has been organized in Stanford. The objects of the association are memorial, literary, social and benevolent, and to honor the memory of those who served and those who fell in the service of the Confederate States, and to fulfill the duties of sacred charity to the survivors and to those who are dependent upon them. Those women are entitled to membership who are the widows, wives, mothers, sisters and lineal descendants of such men as served honorably in the Confederate army, navy or civil service, and persons or their descendants who can give proof of personal service and aid to the Southern cause during the war. All who are eligible are earnestly requested to become members of the association. Application for membership can be left with Mrs. J. W. Alcorn.

The charter members of the chapter here are Mesdames J. W. Alcorn, Kate Miller, M. C. Santley, Mary Burch, Steele Bailey and G. L. Penny and Misses Mary and Kate Alcorn. The initiation fee will likely be fixed at $1 and the dues at 20 cents a year. It is hoped that every one entitled to membership will join and perpetuate the gallant deeds of the living and dead, who fought for the Lost Cause.

OLD PAPERS.—Among Mrs. Mary J. Murphy's papers, Mr. J. S. Hughes found copies of the Louisville Journal of Aug. 8, 1853, of the Frankfort Yeoman June 2, 1849, and of the Lexington Observer and Reporter Aug. 23, 1854. The Journal, published by Prentice & Henderson, is a nine-column folio and three of its pages are full of advertisements, including notices of Negroes for sale and runaway Negroes. The leading editorial is a discussion of the recent congressional election, in which Elliott, democrat, defeated Dr. Pierce in the Madison county district, which was considered the Gibraltar of the whigs, their usual majority being 3,000. It was a misfortune to the whigs, says Mr. Prentice, but it was just what Dr. Pierce deserved for thrusting himself in the canvass and declining all proposals of the adjustment of his claims. "That's one way of disposing of a troublesome customer, and sometimes perhaps the best, if not the only way," the article ends. At the same election, 51 whigs and 36 democrats were elected to the Legislature. In that day the Louisville and Gall, judging by the arrivals published, were as now the leading hotels, the former being kept by M. Kean and the latter by Bishop & Pauls. The other hotels mentioned are the Exchange and Owens Hotel. The postmaster general seems to have just decided that a stamp could not be cut from an envelope and used on another one, even if it had not been cancelled, and the question is made the subject of an article to the effect that a government is not honest which would make such a ruling. The typography of the Journal is fully up to that of today and the paper would be a credit even to these latter and more progressive times. We will make extracts from the other papers Friday.
